Serial No. 10/020,420

Filing Date: December 13, 2001

Title: SYSTEM AND METHOD OF UTILIZING A HARDWARE
COMPONENT TO EXECUTE AN INTERPRETIVE LANGUAGE

REQUEST FOR RECONSIDERATION OF PETITION UNDER 37 CFR 1.47 (A)

Commissioner for Patents
Box DAC
Washington, D.C. 20231

Sir:

Applicant herein petitions for acceptance of declarations from less than all of the inventors as compliance with the Notice to File Missing Parts dated January 11, 2002 for the captioned application.

The Declaration was first sent by certified mail to Vidyasagar Edara at his last known address of 2183 Pettigrew Drive, San Jose, California 95148 on January 24, 2002 by Melissa Paraday of Wildman, Harrold, Allen & Dixon, as shown on the enclosed letter marked exhibit A, and return receipt postcard marked as exhibit B. The Declaration was also sent to Yair Raz at his last known address of 1575 Lewiston Drive, Sunnyvale, California 94087 on January 24, 2002 by Melissa Paraday of Wildman, Harrold, Allen & Dixon, for the assignee of the application as shown by the letter marked as exhibit C and return receipt postcard marked exhibit D. The respective Declarations were received by the inventors as evidenced by the signatures of Mr. Edara and Mr. Raz on the return receipt postcards marked exhibit B and D.

On February 27, 2002, Melissa Paraday spoke with Mr. Edara on the telephone and he stated that he was going to drop the Declaration off at InSilicon with his signature as shown in her statement marked exhibit E. Melissa again attempted to call Mr. Edara on March 11, 2002 and left a message on his answering machine asking him to call her back and let her know if he dropped off the Declaration at InSilicon as shown in exhibit F.

On February 27, 2002, Melissa Paraday called the residence of Mr. Raz where a woman answered and Melissa left a message with her for him to call her back regarding the Declaration, as shown in exhibit G. Mr. Raz called Melissa back later that day as shown in exhibit H and said that his lawyer was reviewing the Declaration and he would get back in touch with InSilicon when finished. On March 11, 2002 Melissa spoke again with Mr. Raz and he told her that his lawyer was still looking over the Declaration and he will try to get them back to InSilicon within the week, as shown in exhibit I.

Christine Parker also made an attempt to call Mr. Raz on April 8, 2002, as shown in exhibit J, and she was told that Mr. Raz was unavailable.

Affidavits furnished herewith by Melissa Paraday and Christine Parker, as exhibits K and L, state facts to support the conclusion that a diligent effort was made to reach the co-inventors Vidyasagar Edara and Yair Raz.

As of today's date, neither Mr. Edara or Mr. Raz have returned the formal papers, including the declarations to my office or to the offices of InSilicon Corporation.

The applicant respectfully submits that it has been established that Mr. Edara and Mr. Raz both received the Declarations, and by their failure to return the Declarations, have effectively refused to sign and return the Declarations.

The undersigned has reviewed the copies of the documents furnished herewith and certifies that they are true and accurate.

Authorization is given to charge any fees to Deposit Account No. 23-2126 incurred as a result of this response.

The undersigned, being hereby warned that willful false statements and the like so made are punishable by fine or imprisonment, or both, under Section 1001 of Title 18 of the United States Code and that such willful false statements may jeopardize the validity of the application or any patent resulting therefrom, I declare that all of the above statements are true based upon my personal knowledge.

Respectfully submitted,
